

Prediction

We are implementing real time face detection and Recognition, using the same cascade classifier and the same recognizer that we used in our Training module. Detecting the face(Region of Interest) of the image frame obtained from the device camera and passing this ROI as a parameter in our recognizers predict function, The algorithm returns the calculated distance, which can be used as a 'confidence' measurement.

